CITY TRUSTEES

Water Experts' Report Received. Charter Election Returns Canvassed—Various Matters

All members present. Demands were read and approved.

A communication was received from R. DeNormandie requesting permission to shoot birds that are destroying fruit. Trustee Lane stated that the birds are undoubtedly doing much damage to fruit, but he did not like the idea of permitting the use of firearms in the city. The request was referred to committee of the whole. The tax collector reported $209.50 collected for the week ending Sept. 21.

A communication was received from the Baraca class of the M. E. church in regard to the establishment of a Y. M. C. A., calling for a meeting at the First National bank on the evening of Friday, the 27th. Messrs. Lane and Watson were named as delegates to attend the meeting.

A communication was received from T. W. Watson and H. B. Lynch, recommending that the demand of Burns & McDonald for expert work in preparing a report on the proposed municipal water system, in the amount of $1,000, be approved, which was agreed to.

Property owners on Kenwood street, between First and Second, requested that the black acacia be accepted as the official tree for that one block of that street. Mr. Emery was present, representing the matter, which was referred to the city engineer.

An application to do street work by private contract on Third street, near Jackson, was received from E. D. Reynolds, and granted.

Chairman Watson made a statement setting forth the results of work with experts in getting up a report on the proposed municipal water system, presenting a map showing the improvements suggested to the delivery system by way of enlargements and extensions.

Election returns, charter committee election, were taken up, canvassed and declared, showing a total vote of 258 and the election of members of the charter committee as given elsewhere. A resolution declaring the result of the election was then read and adopted in accordance with the report.

The chairman announced a meeting of the newly elected charter committee to be held Thursday evening, when they shall take the oath of office and qualify.

The question was put to the city attorney, Mr. Muhleman, whether the fact of an officer of the election board being a candidate would disqualify him from legally serving. The city attorney said that, in the absence of any question of fraud, he believed that the legality of the result would not be affected.

An application to do street work by private contract on Pacific avenue, between Burchett street and Sycamore avenue, was read from Godfrey Edwards, and was granted.

Mr. C. D. Thom appeared before the board and stated, in regard to the improvement of a portion of Verdugo road north of First street, that in his desire to do this work by private contract he had been acting in good faith, and supposed that the work was being done, he having only a verbal agreement with the contractor who had agreed to do it, and requested that he be given time to get bids in from other contractors. The matter went over for another week.

A recommendation was received from the city engineer that the contract for improvement of Vine street from Central avenue to San Fernando road be awarded to McCombs Bros.; adopted.

An option given by the Glendale Consolidated Water Company on its property in the city of Glendale was presented and filed.

A resolution was passed adopting maps showing improvement of a portion of Central avenue. Plans for construction of culverts were also adopted for Central avenue, these culverts being intended to turn into the streets leading westward a portion of the storm water heretofore flowing down Central avenue.

A resolution announcing intention to improve Central avenue was adopted.

Chairman Watson named a committee to take steps looking toward the selection of shade trees for Verdugo road, consisting of G. B. Woodberry, J. P. Lukens and W. D. Root. A similar committee for Sixth street, consisting of R. W. Meeker, S. R. Dixon and G. H. Barager, was also appointed.

Mr. Coker made a motion, that was seconded and adopted, to have the street superintendent see to the putting in of lawn in front and sides of the city hall, advertisement to be made for bids.

The matter of free mail delivery service in and around Glendale was brought up, and a committee was appointed to take the matter up with the postoffice authorities in Los Angeles. A motion passed to hold a special meeting Wednesday evening. The garbage matter was brought up again and discussed at some length.

An ordinance providing for a tax on all vehicles delivering goods and used for hauling on the streets of the city, aimed particularly at heavy teams, but excepting from its operations persons and firms paying a business license to the city, was read a first time and laid over.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Pierce of Ninth street were among the guests at the dance given at Golberg's Assembly hall, Tuesday evening, by the Loyalty Chapter of Eastern Star.

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

Pleasant Occasion at Somerset Farm

At Somerset Farm, Saturday last the Old Settlers Association entertained their friends and themselves in a delightfully informal social manner, as is their annual custom. Under the spreading pepper trees the tables were grouped upon which was spread the picnic viands which came in by the medium of numerous baskets. On another table watermelons and specimens of the celebrated Somerset Farm Persian-Casaba melon, carved in readiness for all comers, awaited the call of the picnic appetite which was very generally in evidence. Another feature of attractiveness was a generous supply of Somerset Farm Punch concocted by the Mistress of the Farm, a delicious mixture possessed of harmless eye-opening properties as to the possibilities of the California lemon and a few other things in the hands of a mistress of the art of mixing. Messrs. Deal, Parker and Willisford are especially referred to for references without their consent.

There was a brief program of business and informal talks after the luncheon was disposed of, in which those present listened to appropriate remarks by old-timers (by unanimous consent) M. Deal and Samuel Parker who made quite light of their respective ages (87 and 82) and expressed their appreciation of the privilege of being permitted to grow young in California. The chairman, Mr. J. C. Sherer, welcomed all to the shade of the pepper trees which the Mistress of the Farm and himself had planted too many years ago to be mentioned. The secretary, Mr. E. D. Goode, read the minutes of the last meeting. Mr. Robert Devine spoke briefly of the California he knew in the early '50s. Mr. Ed Ayers gave one of his humorous recitations and told some of his most veracious fabrications. Old friends who had not met for years met one another in delightful reunions and so the day passed happily, being spoken of by all present as the most successful meeting of the association.

At the business meeting, Mr. J. C. Sherer was re-elected president; Mr. Ed Ayers, vice president, and Mr. E. D. Goode, secretary. A motion was adopted to hold the next annual meeting at the same place on the next third Saturday of September.

Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Clippinger, Huntington Beach; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reese, Long Beach; Mrs. Mary Coote, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Coleman, Mrs. S. E. Chase, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Devine, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ayers, Mrs. S. A. Ayers, Mr. E. S. Ayers, Mrs. C. E. Moser, Mrs. D. H. Imler, Mr. Robt. Taylor, Mrs. F. I. Marsh, Eugene and Marjorie Imler, Tropico; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Miss R. M. Sherer, Mrs. S. M. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Ayers, Rev. and Mrs. Willisford, Mrs. J. M. Banker, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. J. C. Colvin, Mrs. Louisa Mansfield, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Mrs. R. E. Whitaker, Miss Ruth Byram, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parker, Catherine and Edmund Parker, Mrs. J. E. Fiske, Mrs. Emily Aspinwall, Mr. Samuel Fiske, Mr. T. E. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sherer.

BOND ELECTION OCTOBER 29TH

At a special meeting held Wednesday evening, the city trustees prepared the draft of an ordinance calling a bond election to be held Oct. 29, the first publication of the ordinance to appear next week in the NEWS. The proposition will be for a bond issue for $250,000, to be used as follows:

For municipal water supply	$225,000
For additional fire apparatus	20,000
For street improvement machinery	5,000

MASONS AND EASTERN STARS GO PICNICKING.

Verdugo Park swarmed with three hundred Masons and Eastern Stars who gathered there at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon to hold their annual picnic. From the moment of arrival to the moment of departure, fun and hilarity held sway. In fact, it began on the way. An intensely exciting baseball war was waged by teams captained by Doctor Chase and Dan Campbell.

Following the ball game athletic events were entered by one and all, occasioning the wildest kind of mirth, both for participants and onlookers.

After a hot but happy afternoon a picnic supper, composed of everything known to picnics, was disposed of to the last crumb. The day was unanimously voted a perfect success.

KENEEN-ESCOTT.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Root, 1414 Salem street, Miss Doris Escott was married to Mr. Howard Keneen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Willisford. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The newly married couple will be at home to their friends after a few days at their home, Seventh and Glendale avenue.

LAWN FETE A SUCCESS

A Scene of Beauty and an Enjoyable Performance

At the beautiful grounds surrounding the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones on Orange street, the Tuesday Afternoon Club held its delightfully planned Japanese fete on Friday evening, a perfect moonlight night. No prettier place could have been chosen as a setting for the charming affair. The lawns were dotted with pergolas which lent themselves perfectly to the artistic Japanese decorations. Japanese lanterns swayed in the breeze from every tree, lighting the way for the pretty Jap maidens who flitted about in bright-hued kimonas.

The evening's pleasures opened with the out-of-doors musical rendered by the Sierra quartet. Every number was greeted with applause and followed by insistent demands for an encore. A pleasant variety was added by the readings in Southern dialect of Miss Vinnie Gee of Texas, whose own sweet personality lent extra charm to her well-chosen and clearly rendered selections. Little Miss Winifred Jones, small daughter of the host and hostess of the evening, captivated the entire audience, when she appeared, prettily costumed in a dark red kimona and carrying a huge Japanese fan which she flirted in a most accomplished manner. The audience was completely won at the end of the two dainty little Japanese songs which she sang a in talented manner.

Following the musical and readings, the merry throng composed of many out-of-town guests as well as numerous representatives from our own valley visited the alluring booths, until one and all were absolutely depleted of everything saleable.

The tea booth was a charming affair, where tea and Japanese cakes were dispensed in a bower of wisteria by Mrs. Henry Ward, Miss Martha Porter, Miss Elizabeth Porter, Miss Esther Sinclair, Miss Barbara Mitchell, Miss Edna Klincke and Miss Myrtle Pulliam, all in Oriental attire.

Under a shower of cherry blossoms, Mrs. Freeman Kelley, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Lang, Miss Birdie Shropshire and Miss Berenice Williams in pink and blue kimonas with butterfly sashes made a pretty group around the punch bowl where punch was served.

Striking was the appearance of the candy booth composed of a large Japanese umbrella and lanterns presided over by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. Alexander N. Lord, and where Miss Lillian Leppleman, Macbeth Pigg, Katherine Lord and Winifred Jones quaintly garbed as candy sticks, lent their assistance.

A portion of the yard was devoted to a gypsy camp where fortune telling was carried on by two gypsy queens who undoubtedly possessed keys to the future. Dr. Jessie A. Russell, assisted by Miss Adaline Jack and Miss Winifred Sadler, were in charge of the camp. Virginia Hunchberger, Shirley Chase, Catherine Hanna and Dorothy McGinnis were pages who sold tickets on the ground and directed patrons to the camp.

The evening was a long series of pleasures and with the fairylike vista of lanterns made the occasion one long to be remembered by the many guests. The elaborate plans had been carried out in a manner to make the affair a success from every point of view.

CHARTER COMMITTEE ELECTION

A Light Vote

The quietest election ever held in Glendale was the one of last Friday when 238 votes were cast for members of the charter committee. There were 24 election officers at $3.00 each (none too much either) which with ballots and other items runs the expense up to over $150 for the election. The count was as follows: Watson, 142; Vesper, 193; Stanley, 164; Sinclair, 188; Parker, 176; Muhleman, 184; Moyse, 182; Lane, 128; Kirkby, 166; Hunchberger, 192; Goode, 183; Gilhousen, 174; Emery, 182; Daub, 150; Damerell, 182; Cole, 177; Coker, 125; Campbell, 211. The fifteen receiving the highest number of votes were elected.

The committee has had a number of meetings and the work of framing the charter is already well under way. When completed it will be published and submitted to the people for adoption or rejection. If adopted it goes before the legislature for approval and upon receiving that high sanction becomes the law by which the city shall be governed.

A NEW DIRECTORY.

The Hall Directory people are preparing to get out another directory of Tropico, Glendale, Casa Verdugo, North Glendale and vicinity, similar to the one they prepared about two years ago. This community grows so rapidly that the excellent directory this concern prepared before, has already got out of date and the need of a new one is apparent to all who have occasion to use it. Mr. Wallace will have charge of the work.

THE WATER QUESTION

Experts Employed by City Make Report—Valuation of Properties in Detail—Purchases and Extensions Call for $234,438.79

For the purpose of presenting something authoritative to the people of Glendale and in accordance with a request made by a mass meeting of citizens some time ago, the trustees secured the services of a firm of experts to make a report on the physical valuation of the various water companies which it may be desirable to purchase should the city finally decide to establish a municipal water plant. After making diligent inquiries it was decided to engage for this work the firm of Burns and McDonnell of Kansas City, whose recent work for the city of Riverside and their established reputation, seemed to indicate that they were the very best experts available in this particular line. Mr. Burns came to Glendale and in company with Mr. H. B. Lynch, manager of the lighting department who had previously made a report to the trustees on the same subject, went over the system thoroughly. The NEWS has prepared a careful synopsis of the report which has just been submitted and precents it herewith.

Basis of Valuation.

In the preface to the report the basis of valuation is stated to be, "Cost-of-duplication-new-less-depreciation." A considerable portion of the report is devoted to an enlargement upon this idea as showing its equitable application to the solution of the problem presented.

Exhibits in Report.

There are a number of exhibits in the report setting forth the prices of material and labor, and a complete map of existing and proposed pipe lines.

Subdivisions of Report.

The report is divided into five sections, as follows:

Section1—Valuation of property of Verdugo Springs Water Company's system.

Section 2—Ditto as to Verdugo Pipe and Reservoir Company.

Section 3—Ditto as to Glendale Consolidated Water Company.

Section 4—Ditto as to Miradero Water Company.

Section 5—Estimated cost of improvements, extensions and new construction, based upon the assumption that the four systems be unified and combined into one municipal system.

Items of Cost.

A number of tables are presented, going into every detail of the cost of material and labor, comprising cost of not only the pipe but of all fittings down to the smallest. For instance, the cost of making the house service connections is figured down in detail, showing actual figures of $6.45 for each connection, not including meters. Another table shows pressure tests taken at various points in the city.

Proposed Extensions and Improvements.

Estimated cost	$53,253.31

Based on a combination of the four systems. Recommended that a reservoir be constructed with capacity of 3,000,000 gallons at an elevation of 720 feet above sea level, which is 40 feet higher than present Miradero reservoir. Present cause of complaints of lack of pressure are largely due to inadequate distribution system. Cast-iron pipes are recommended for extensions of four and six inch lines, and for pipes of eight inches or more in diameter, riveted steel. The improvements proposed are estimated to be adequate for a population of 18,000 people. Cost of a portion of proposed extension need not be incurred at once.

The cost is made up of items of pipe lines principally, and an item of $14,000 for the proposed reservoir. The estimate does not include the cost of developing any additional water supply. It is recommended that a hydrographic survey of the waters of Verdugo canyon be made with a view of determining possibilities of development, the result of which would be valuable in determining comparative cost of water from this source and from Owens river, which would be necessary to determine the desirability of any proposition made by the aqueduct commission.

Summing Up.

The estimated total cost of securing these properties and making the proposed improvements is $234,438.79. The statement does not include the value of any real estate belonging to the various companies.

("Going value"—the present worth of the amount by which the anticipated profits of a going plant operating at reasonable rates exceed the present worth of the anticipated profit of a similar hypothetical starting plant operating at those same rates.)

FREE DELIVERY EXTENDED

But Further Improvements Seriously Needed

Beginning Thursday of last week the postoffice authorities commenced free delivery service in that portion of Glendale north of Third street, east of and including Pacific avenue and extending to the "Wash" on the North. The territory north of the wash, east of Brand, will now have the benefit of R. F. D. No. 5 delivery service.

One additional carrier has been added to the force of the Glendale postoffice and the services of a temporary carrier are also being used for the additional work. No extension of the service has yet been made in other portions of the city, although very seriously needed in some sections. At the meeting of the trustees Monday evening, a committee was appointed to see the postmaster in Los Angeles in regard to better postal service in Glendale and vicinity, and it is hoped some good results may be obtained in the near future.

CANYON CREST.

Mr. W. M. Hepburn of Canyon Crest has issued a beautiful folder descriptive of that attractive place which Mr. Hepburn has converted into a Place of Rest for the brain-fagged and bodyweary. This beautiful place until recently the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wells, overlooks the San Fernando Valley from its eminence just on the east side of Glendale and promises to become a Mecca toward which many who are in need of a pleasant place to retire from the strenuous life, will turn their footsteps, for the proprietor and his wife are well fitted to cater to this numerous class of mortals.

IN THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Col. T. P. Murray, who resided for two or three months during the summer on Ninth street near Adams, was brought before Judge Whomes on a complaint of Minnie J. Newhouse, who sued him for a forty-dollar wage bill as housekeeper. Under a special act passed in 1911 the complaint was made a criminal one, but on the advice of the district attorney, it was dismissed on a technicality. The effect on the Colonel seems to have been good however, as the complainant received the amount of the bill, less charges.

Marshall Miller indulged in his usual Sunday pastime by bringing in three culprits last Sunday afternoon charged with speeding on Verdugo road in the canyon. Two were on motorcycles, the other in au automobile. They enriched the treasury to the extent of five dollars apiece.

INITIATION OF CARNATION REBEKAH LODGE.

At the recent initiation of Carnation Rebekah Lodge of Glendale, some beautiful work was put on by officers and members of East Gate Rebekah Lodge No. 287, of Highland Park, secured through the efforts of District Deputy President Effie Adams. Three automobiles were brought into play to bring them over, and the paraphernelia which they furnished was sufficient to fill a separate car. I. O. O. F. hall on Broadway was decorated for the occasion with pepper boughs, etc., and a handsome banner of pink and green, with the following, "East Gate Lodge Welcome," was prominently displayed. After the work, refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. Among the numerous cakes furnished was one of the angel food kind, baked at the Glendale Bakery, and specially decorated very handsomely for the occasion.

GLENDALE, CAL., SEPTEMBER 27, 1912

Postal Savings Banks and the Parcels Post are only two of the achievements of the present administration, but they may be worth mentioning.

When we learn to differentiate between what we think and what we know—well, by that time we shall have gone to the Elsewhere.

Judge Hutton has decided not to be a candidate for re-election, although legally his name cannot be taken from the ticket. The reason given is the plea of ill health.

Now that the charter committee has been elected, progress in the preparation of a new organic law for the government of Glendale will be rapid. No doubt but the instrument will be entirely up to date with all modern improvements and first-class conveniences befitting a real city.

The mortality among the navigators of the air has been heavy during the past ten days, in one day alone three fatal accidents occurred in as many parts of the world. If it were not for the daily fatalities resulting from the use of automobiles we should fancy that aeroplaning would lose popularity.

We present in this issue of the NEWS a very complete synopsis of the expert's report on the water question. It practically verifies the report of Mr. H. B. Lynch, although going much more minutely into details. The city trustees are in possession of an option from the Consolidated Water company offering to sell its property at a figure practically $20,000 less than the valuation given in the Burns report.

Who is it comes across the street
And hastens every one to greet
As though his life were incomplete
If you he miss!

You know his protestations hollow
And yet you meekly rise and follow,
But hold—you need not yet him swallow,
Look you on this—

She sails the sidewalk's space along,
Her hat plumes rise above the throng,
Though you be mighty, she is strong,
And full of guile!

Take to the woods, for this is Fate
Armed and accoutered up to date,
This is the female candidate,

A SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR BELL.

Senator Bell, representing this senatorial district in the legislature, resigned his position last Tuesday in order to enter upon his campaign for Congress. In fairness to others who might have wished to present to the people a candidate of their own, Mr. Bell should have resigned immediately after the primary election so as to have allowed ample time in which to file petitions. This, however, would not have agreed with the plans of the Committee of Fifteen who had selected Mr. W. J. Carr, city attorney of Pasadena, as Mr. Bell's successor. The claims of Pasadena are as usual, modest—that town only wants the congressman, the senator, and so near by as to be practically in its bailiwick, the supervisor and assemblyman. The San Fernando Valley should have a representative in the legislature and except for the fact that the time for filing petitions is so short it would be possible to secure one. Of course he would have to be a "Progressive," but it should be possible to select a statesman of that stripe who would not be a cog in the Lissner machine.

HUMAN FALLIBILITY.

Colonel Roosevelt, when he received the final returns from the Maine election on Tuesday night, at Tacoma, Wash., made the following statement:

"We named for governor of Maine the man the Progressives wanted. He wrote to me that he hoped we would not make a fight against him, that he was for me and that he would come out for us after the election. I have just received word that he carried the state and that, in accordance with his promise, he had come out for the Progressive national ticket."

Governor-elect Haines, when shown the Colonel's statement on the following day at his home in Waterville, Me., had this to say:

"I have never yet indicated whether I shall support Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Taft in the coming contest. I have had the support of both factions in my contest for the governorship and I feel under great obligations to what I call both wings of the Republican party.

"I shall not be able to take any part in the November election on account of my health. They will have to fight it out without me."

Did the Colonel leave his ready-letter file at Wilkesbarre? How otherwise can he explain these two contradictory assertions?—Phila. Ledger.

THE BRYAN MEETING.

A tremendous audience greeted Wm. J. Bryan at Fiesta Park on Monday, estimated to consist of from twenty to twenty-five thousand people who listened for two hours to one of the foremost orators in the world.

One-quarter of the speech was devoted to a clear and apparently unprejudiced account of the conventions at Chicago and Baltimore. The point he made by paying so much attention to these affairs was that the system is wrong which permits a committee four years old to pass upon the credentials of delegates fresh from the people.

He gave no encouragement to the believers in the cry of "fraud" raised by the "Progressives in reference to the Chicago convention, 'showing clearly that it was merely carried on according to precedent and was not fraudulent. He claimed for the Democrats that they have put a plank in their platform which will remedy a time-honored evil. A half of the speech was devoted to the records of President Taft and Col. Roosevelt. The remaining quarter was given to the Democratic party with the exception of a few sentences in which Mr. Wilson was faintly praised. The audience although exhibiting its interest by close attention to the speaker, betrayed no enthusiasm for anybody or anything, being quite remarkable in that respect.

STREET TREE PLANTING.

There are indications of a revival of interest in regard to the planting of trees along Glendale's streets, a matter to which considerable attention was given some two or three years ago. We regret to notice that the Black Acacia still remains a favorite in some sections. While well adapted by habit of growth to street planting, this tree is in itself rather unattractive and there are a number of other varieties which would add more beauty to our streets. Even the common pepper tree when properly planted and cared for, is its superior in beauty. It unfortunately happens that many of the trees of this variety on our streets are old and misshapen through lack of care and are not examples of its possibilities; it has few superiors for street planting. There should be more live oaks planted. This native tree grows rapidly if given a chance, is graceful in form and beautiful in foliage. On wide parkways the Himalaya Cedar (Deodara) can be planted and is not excelled in beauty by anything we have; trees of this form are especially adapted to planting on street corners. They grow very large in the course of years, but that need not trouble seriously any except the very young planters.

A splendid tree for street planting is the Lawson cypress, but this will not be popular until more of them are grown and the price reduced in consequence. They do well to alternate with a variety of more lusty growth. The camphor and the bottle tree are fine trees at their best, but require close attention for the first few years to insure the desirable symmetry. This close attention, however, should not mean the misguided care which some people imagine is best shown by trimming off the lower branches, an act which spoils more shade trees than any other kind of vandalism that has been discovered. Tree planters should bear in mind that it is worse than useless to plant trees and allow them to be neglected, as is so often done. They are often planted with enthusiasm and neglected with unanimous consent.

THE SCHOOLS.

The schools have settled down to routine work. The full enrollment of all the grammar schools to date is 921, divided as follows: Remington Street (West Glendale), 285; Broadway (formerly Fourth Street), 240; Sixth Street, 226; Intermediate, 170.

The staff at the Intermediate school consists of Alton M. Brooks, supervisor civics; Miss Carrie Noble, history; Egbert Polly, penmanship and arithmetic; Miss Maud Soper, language and literature; Miss Louise M. Kimball, English and spelling; Stewart Samuels, physiology, agriculture and geography; Miss Myrta Herbert, drawing; Miss Mabel Thayer, manual training; Miss Ellen Foster; music; Miss Lulu Wooldridge, domestic science.

COMRADES.

We meet for our second meeting in September the 27th inst, at 10:30 at headquarters, Ninth and Central avenue. Visiting comrades are urged to meet with the post. Times of much interest are always experienced. It is desired that we prepare for a camp fire in the near future that will call all our friends in. We must be very much alive while we live.

C. R. NORTON, P.C.

A statement issued by the "Roosevelt Progressive Republican League" gives a list of the principal contributions to the campaign up to this time. The principal contributors are Frank A. Munsey and George W. Perkins who gave $15,000 each. These gentlemen have each a personal and particular interest in the Colonel's campaign, Mr. Perkins as a large stockholder in the Steel and Harvester trusts, and Mr. Munsey as the proprietor of magazines upon which it is proposed to increase the rate of postage.

The many friends of Mr. W. G. Watson were pleased to see him out on the street again this week. He is gradually recovering from his recent severe accident, but laments the fact that he is not yet good for a day's work.

The Gleaners presented an interesting program at their entertainment last Friday evening. Although the audience was not as large as was expected, yet it was very enthusiastic, each number on the program being heartily encored. Music was furnished by a ladies' quartet composed of the Misses Midcalf, Hommer, Cleeland and Mrs. Van Luven. A cute recitation, "I Wish I Was a Grown-Up," was given by Glen Moore. Humorous readings were given by Mrs. Van Luven and by Mr. Bowen of Los Angeles. A short dialogue, "The Competing Railroads," given by four young men was very funny and well acted. A little play presented by ten young people representing country school children taking their first lesson in fractions kept the audience laughing from beginning to end. Miss Lucile Spencer was the struggling teacher, but the "children" were too dull to comprehend the lesson. After the program ice cream and wafers were served. The Ladies' Aid Society held an all-day meeting Thursday, sewing for the orphanage, the David and Margaret Home at Lordsburg.

Next Sunday evening, Dr. Morrison will preach his farewell sermon.

Valley Improvement Association

The Glendale Valley Improvement Association will meet next Thursday night. An interesting program has been arranged.

Mr. J. D. Storrie, an expert piano tuner, is located at the Vert Mont, where he will be glad to receive orders for work in his line, having had a wide experience and thorough understanding of the art. Telephone Home 1982.

Just to show that there was no hard feeling and that he appreciated their services, Harry P. Coker, proprietor of the Valley Supply Company, took all the men working for him to the circus Tuesday evening. They saw the whole show, sampled everything in sight and came home satisfied.

At Hotel Glendale last Sunday evening, J. W. Everett, manager of the Verdugo baseball team, tendered the players on the Verdugo team a banquet, this being the annual affair given at the close of the season's play. A fact which added pleasure to the event was that during the past season the team won thirty-five out of forty games played, and finished third in the Trolley League, which was composed of fourteen teams.

While acting the lead in a picture being taken in Verdugo Canyon one day last week, Miss Lil Christy, the leading woman of the Kalem Motion Picture company with headquarters here, was severely injured. Miss Christy was riding a spirited horse in the lead of the company of fifty or more actors when her horse stumbled. After falling, the horse rolled over Miss Christy and while scrawling to its feet stepped upon her head, cutting a deep gash over the left eye. Dr. Bryant was summoned and after medical attention the young lady was removed to her home in Lomita Park.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. DuBois, who have made their home off and on with their daughter, Mrs. A. M. Beamon of 245 Maryland avenue, left Seattle recently on the steamship Minnesota for a year's absence during which they will tour the world, visiting Japan, China, India, Egypt and all the European countries. A number of the winter months will be spent in Milan, Italy. Mrs. Beamon was hostess of seevral social compliments given in honor of Mrs. DuBois previous to her departure.

MY IMPRESSIONS OF SAN JACINTO

By Mrs. Edward Morris

Last week I went to San Jacinto in a great luxurious touring car. Today I know that there is one other joy to make one say, "I am glad to live," and that is this little valley.

Our trip started at Los Angeles and wound through such interminable stretches of exquisite beauty that it seemed the Greator's best had been accomplished. And still we heard San Jacinto acclaimed by a fellow-passenger as more beautiful. With a mind dazzled with the beauty of each fleeting scene and deeply pondering what a more beautiful spot could be, and yes, fearing that hopes built so totteringly high must needs fall, we swayed on and on southward.

At last the purplish hills seemed to grow more friendly in their welcome as they allowed us to come nearer to their charms. Mount San Jacinto watching in dignity over all. A short climb, a drive around the softly sloping hill, and there lay the little valley of San Jacinto, valley of delight.

Beautiful! Gifted poet has always begged for further word to describe the beauty his poet soul could see, then how indeed can I express the exquisite panorama my eyes beheld?

This, then, was one of the rare times in life that a reality surpasses a mental picture—a time like that when love first calls from out of dreams and in its living presence the soul sees how meager indeed was the dream.

We sped on to the heart of the valley that seemed so a part of a fairyland, for San Jacinto is "in the world and yet not of it." Just near enough to bustling city of Los Angeles, the smaller sister cities along the route, but just isolated enough to seem a spot in the old world—unique, entirely individual. There is a subtle distinction between personality and individuality. San Jacinto can claim individuality. The eyes dance from one glorious spot to another of equal or greater beauty.

Acre after acre of alfalfa spread like a rich green velvet carpet, well-groomed orchards of golden apricots, glistening grain fields, artistic little California homes nestling in their midst. Their owners are smiling and cheery because peace and plenty are theirs. The valley has a wonderful climate, rich productive silt soil and water in abundance. This water is most conveniently delivered to the ranchers through underground flumes at a very moderate figure. These conditions obliterate the oil "betenoire" of a bad season's failure. With alfalfa ranging from $12 to $20 per ton, an acre yielding 1½ to 3 tons, and those tons obtainable seven times a year with the other crops equally remunerative, it seems a magic land indeed.

In the center and to the right lies the town of San Jacinto, up-to-date, yet retaining its own peculiar charm of early California days, it has a splendid bank, schools, mercantile stores, in fact all public business organizations necessary to the maintenance of a modern town. The hotel is a quaint artistic homelike place where courtesy and welcome and a most wholesome and substantial feast for the inner man greet the traveler.

In truth, every one is cordial and sunny. Gathered from all corners of the earth to forge ahead, maybe on a tiny spot of five acres or on a noble ranch of many acres; all seem to feel a common bond of gratitude that the Great Designer created San Jacinto and that their guardian angels sent them there.

To the south lies Hemet, little city of beautiful homes. Soft, graceful olive orchards, orange groves with their globes of sunshine, Oriental fig trees, delicate green vineyards, dangling tempting "Olympus fruit" in its season, all making an ensemble that painter's brush could not depict.

And there on the hill overlooking it all, missing not one single esthetic thrill, Nat Goodwin, that connoisseur of art, is rearing his noble mansion and laying out his landscape. Oh, how one envies (no, not that word, for one cannot envy in San Jacinto—the very atmosphere breathes nobler things,) well then, how one rejoices with him that he had first of all the artistic temperment to comprehnd the wondrous beauty and next the means to gratify it. Across from this home is another mansion in the hills, regal and snowy white with a quaint Italian charm. About centrally located between these beauty spots, another idyllic home and ranch have been laid out with unfailing artistic eye. This is the large alfalfa ranch of Knowlton of Pasadena, and although less spectacular than the other two, it is satisfying with that sense of exquisite simplicity which after all is true art. Amidst tall glistening cottonwoods the home, an attractive Swiss chalet with garage, barn and other buildings to match, stands upon a high knoll of three acres which forms the gardens and grounds. At the foot of this knoll stretches out in richest green one hundred acres of magnificent alfalfa, one of the finest stands in the state.

And for amusement and recreation these "Sons and Daughters of the Gods" have the finest hunting, fishing and mineral springs. A reservation of those great dark-eyed children whose world was so rudely wrenched from them years ago, add their Indian spell and weave their beautiful art baskets for their more fortunate white brother.

Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An Act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27th, 1893, and of all acts supplementary thereto, or amendatory thereof.

SECTION 3. First: That all that portion of Maryland Avenue from the North line of Doran Street to a point 1000 feet Northerly therefrom be graded and oiled in accordance with the plan and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer, and specifications for grading and oiling streets in the City of Glendale on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 10.

Second: That a cement curb be constructed along each line of the roadway of said Maryland Avenue from the North line of Doran Street to a point 1000 feet Northerly therefrom, (excepting along such portions of the lines of said roadway along which a cement curb has already been constructed to the official line and grade) in accordance with specifications for the construction of cement curbs on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 2, except that the outer or street face of all curbs shall be placed ten (10) feet from the property lines of the street instead of the distance specified in said specifications numbered 2.

Third: That a cement sidewalk Five (5) feet in width be constructed along both sides of said Maryland Avenue from the North line of Doran Street to a point 1000 feet Northerly therefrom (excepting along such portions of said Maryland Avenue upon which a cement sidewalk five (5) feet in width has already been constructed to the official line and grade). Said sidewalks to be constructed according to the specifications for the construction of cement sidewalks on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 1.

SECTION 2. That the said Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale finds, upon estimates directed to be furnished and furnished by the City Engineer of the City of Glendale, that the total cost of said proposed work or improvement will be greater than fifty (50) cents per front foot along each line of said street so proposed to be improved, as hereinbefore set forth, including the cost of intersection work assessable upon said frontage, and said Board of Trustees determines that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said work or improvement; said serial bonds shall be extended over a period ending nine (9) years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon on the second day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually by coupon on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An Act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27th, 1893, and of acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof.

Section 3. Said notice shall require a certified check or bond, either, as prescribed by law, and for an amount not less than ten per cent. of the aggregate of the proposal. Said City Clerk is also hereby directed to publish this Resolution for two days, in the manner required by law, in said newspaper designated for that purpose, as aforesaid.

Maria Mitchell and the Beer Man.

Maria Mitchell, the famous astronomer, was once directed by her physician to use lager beer as a tonic. On the way to visit her sister, Mrs. Joshua Kendall of Cambridge, Mass., she stopped at a saloon and purchased a bottle of beer and afterward asked her brother-in-law to open it for her. The Mitchell family spoke among themselves after the Quaker custom.

"Where did thee get this bottle, Maria?" questioned her sister.

"At the saloon on the corner," replied Miss Mitchell serenely.

"Why, Maria! Doesn't thee know respectable women don't go into such places?"

"Oh," said Miss Mitchell in the manner of one who has done all that could be required, "I told the man after I bought it that he ought to be thoroughly ashamed of his traffic."

Equality.

Come, give me your hand, sir, my friend and my brother.
If honest, why, sure, that's enough!
One hand, if it's true, is as good as another,
No matter how brawny or rough.

Though it toil for a living at hedges or ditches
Or make for its owner a name
Or fold in its grasp all the dainties of riches,
If honest, I love it the same.

Not less in the sight of his heavenly Maker
Is he who must toil for his bread.
Not more in the sight of the mute undertaker
Is majesty shrouded and dead.

Let none of us jeeringly scoff at his neighbor
Or mock at his lowly birth.
We are all of us God's. Let us earnestly labor
To better this suffering earth.

—Matthias Barr.

The Raw Recruit.

F. M. King enlisted in the Spanish-American war and was sent to Jefferson Barracks. He was strolling through the company streets smoking a cigar when an officer approached. King saluted.

"Look here," said the officer, "don't you know better than to salute an officer when you have a cigar in your mouth? How long have you been here?"

"Three days," replied King.

"You are excused this time," said the officer, "but don't let me catch you doing that again."

In a short time King met the same officer and walked by without saluting.

"Why didn't you salute?" demanded the officer, stopping him.

"Well, you just told me not to salute when I had a cigar in my mouth," replied the raw recruit.

But he spent three days in the kitchen peeling potatoes for this offense.—Atchison Champion.

A Losing Dream.

"I made a nice idiot of myself the other morning," said the commuter, who is paying teller in a savings bank. "My wife was afraid I'd miss my train, and she got me by the shoulder and shook me, telling me that it was time to get up. I got about half awake, and somehow I thought I was at my window in the bank, with a long line of women awaiting their turn. The one at the window was handing me a check, and from force of habit I said:

" 'How much money do you want?'

"You know, most women who present checks want to draw some and deposit the rest. Well, what do you think the wife did? Quick as a flash came her answer to my dopy question:

" 'Five dollars will do.'

"She got it, but I hope I won't dream any more."—New York Post.

A Lost Play.

Weedon Grossmith, the English comedian, used to tell a good story about a play by Robert Ganthony, which that gentleman asked him to read. Mr. Grossmith took the comedy, but lost it on his way home. "Night after night," he says, "I would meet Ganthony, and he would ask me how I liked his play. It was awful. The perspiration used to come out on my forehead as I'd say sometimes, 'I haven't had time to look at it yet,' or, again, 'The first act was good, but I can't stop to explain, etc., must catch a train.' That play was the bane of my existence and haunted even my dreams." Some months passed, and Ganthony, a merry wag, still pursued him without mercy. At last it occurred to Mr. Grossmith that he might have left the comedy in the cab on the night it was given to him. He went down to Scotland Yard and inquired. "Oh, yes!" was the reply. "Play marked with Mr. Ganthony's name, sent back to the owner four months ago, as soon as found."

The Old Days.

Some years ago—it was in the good old days—a Pittsburgh worker went to Harrisburg and asked for a job as doortender.

"I don't want much," he said, "but I need this job."

The party boss agreed that he was entitled to some consideration.

"Find a door without a doortender and you can have it," were the big man's instructions.

The worker looked around for several days and then reported.

"I can't find a door without plenty of doortenders."

"Not one door?"

"Nary door. Guess I'll go home."

"Wait a bit," said the boss. "You have been a good party worker. I'll have a door cut for you."—Pittsburgh Post.

ANNOYED THE GUEST.

What Did They Think He Went to the Hotel For Anyway?

An elderly, undersized, old fashioned man entered a fashionable New York hotel one night late in the rush season and timidly approached the desk.

"Have you got any sort of place you could put me for the night?" he asked in a rich brogue. "It's tired I am all through, and I have tried several other hotels."

"Would you mind much where you slept?" asked the clerk.

"Not at all so long as there is a comfortable bed."

"Well, the only thing I could give you is a room where the bellboys hang their coats. It is small, but it contains a bed, and I guess you could sleep all right."

"I'll take it," said the stranger, and he dived down in his jeans and pulled out a wad. "How much is it?"

"You can let that wait until the morning," protested the clerk, but the other insisted on paying.

"Will you register?" suggested the clerk, turning the book toward him.

"What's that? No; you needn't wake me in the morning," and he turned to go upstairs.

"I asked you to register," repeated the clerk.

"You needn't send me any ice water," said the other.

"But I want you to write your name in the book."

"Oh!" said the stranger. He took the pen, jabbed it into the inkstand, where he wabbled it about as if it were a brush, leaned over the desk and with a big flourish wrote the letter "J." Then he caught his breath and made a running hieroglyph on the line underneath, which the clerk from long practice was able to decipher as "ohn." The visitor then shifted his position, took another brace between the floor and the edge of the counter and started in again. There was a short and then a long sweep of the arm, and when the clerk glanced at the result something resembling a "G" had been evolved. The stranger then traced a series of letters up toward the northeast, all looking alike. The clerk after a little study decided they were meant for "annon." Then Mr. Gannon leaned back, straightened up and as he started to put the pen back asked to be shown to his room.

"But you haven't put down your residence," suggested the clerk.

"My what?" demanded Mr. Gannon.

"The place where you live," explained the clerk.

"Look here, young man," said Mr. Gannon, "you've got my money, and you've got my name. D'you think I'm going to write here all night?" and he flung away the pen he was holding and turned away with something that sounded like a strong cuss word.—New York Press.

Came For the Supplies.

Eli Perkins used to relate this anecdote of President Lincoln: One day an old negro, clad in rags and carrying a burden on his head, ambled into the executive mansion and dropped his load on the floor. Stepping toward President Lincoln, he said:

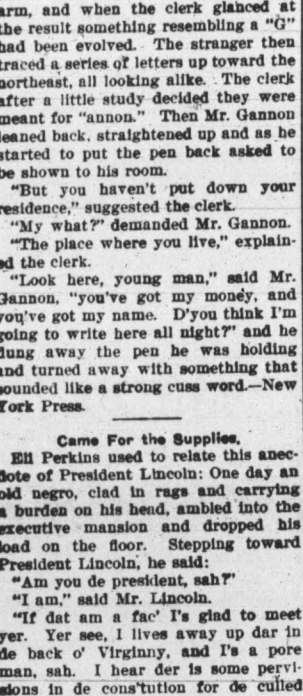
"Am you de president, sah?"

"I am," said Mr. Lincoln.

"If dat am a fac' I's glad to meet yer. Yer see, I lives away up dar in de back o' Virginny, and I's a pore man, sah. I hear der is some pervisions in de constitution for de culled man, and I's here to get some ob 'em, sah."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mistaken Identity.

Sir Thomas Robinson was a tall, uncouth man, and his appearance was rendered still more striking by his hunting dress, which consisted of a tight green jacket, buckskin breeches and a postilion's cap. He once set off in his hunting suit to pay a visit to his sister in Paris. He arrived at the house while there was a large company at dinner. The servant announced M.



"ARE YOU THE FAMOUS ROBINSON CRUSOE?"

Robinson, and in walked this remarkable figure, to the amazement of the guests. One of them, a titled exquisite, lifted his fork three times to his mouth and each time laid it down without tasting the food. Unable at last to restrain his curiosity longer, he burst out eagerly, "Excuse me, monsieur, are you the famous Robinson Crusoe so remarkable in history?"

First. That that portion of Vine Street from the West line of Central Avenue to the Easterly line of San Fernando Road, including all intersections of streets, be graded and oiled in accordance with plans and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer and specifications for the grading and oiling of streets on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 10, excepting that in addition to said specifications No. 10 there shall be incorporated into the roadway a layer of gravel two and one-half (2½) inches thick in the center tapering uniformly to a thickness of one inch at the curb line, of which the maximum pieces will pass through a 2½-inch ring and the minimum pieces will not pass through a ½-inch ring, in the following manner: When the roadway is ready for the final coating of oil as called for in said specifications, the gravel as above specified shall then be evenly spread over the entire surface and rolled into said roadway, and then completed as provided for in specifications number 10.

WOMAN AND THE BALLOT.

I am not one of those who believe suffrage should be conferred on any individual because he is a man or denied any individual because she is a woman. The duty of suffrage should be conferred solely with reference to the needs of good and wise government, and women are quite as well able to deal with such issues as men. Nor am I one of those who believe that the polling place is unfit for a good woman to frequent. If this should be so it must be changed or the republic cannot endure. Still less do I agree with the degrading argument that suffrage should be conferred upon women because it will benefit them. Suffrage must be a duty and not a privilege.—Dr. Talcott Williams, Director of Pulitzer School of Journalism.

DEATH OF H. C. GOODELL—OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

Mr. H. C. Goodell died at his residence, on Seventh street, near Louise, last Saturday morning, of heart failure. Mr. Goodell was about the streets as usual Friday morning, and it was not until late in the afternoon that he consented to have a doctor sent for. He never realized the seriousness of the attack, and passed away in an apparently restful sleep Saturday morning. The funeral took place at the Pulliam undertaking parlors Tuesday morning, the body being interred at Grand View cemetery, beside his wife, who perceded him a few years ago.

Mr. Goodell was 94 years of age and had led a life of unusual activity, and until the very last refused to give up, although for a year or two past he had been afflicted with partial blindness, which made it difficult to get around. He was a native of Hadley, Mass., and during the Civil War was general manager of the Toledo & Wabash railroad. He was the inventor of the Goodell refrigerator car, practically the first car of the kind that was ever successfully used for the transportation of perishables. Using the same principle, he also invented and patented a very successful refrigerator for the home, upon which invention he received several medals of honor and prizes from foreign countries. He was owner of the orange orchard and ranch property which in 1906 was subdivided by Crider & Hamilton and is now known as the Lomita Park tract, Glendale. Mr. Goodell leaves a daughter, Miss Cora, with whom he lived ever since coming to Glendale about fourteen years ago.

DEATH OF MRS. EMMA PENN.

Mrs. Penn having passed away on that date. It will be remembered that the family left here about a year ago to return to her old home in England, after a residence in Glendale of over twenty years. Since their arrival there Mrs. Penn seemed to have been benefiting from the voyage, and was in apparently good health, considering her age, but the fatal illness attacked her two or three days before the end came. The family has a large circle of friends in this vicinity who will feel the deepest sympathy for them in their loss. Mrs. Penn was a woman of ideal Christian character.

The Ladies' Aid of the West Glendale M. E. church and quite a number of others who were interested in the work, met at the church on Thursday, and held an "All Day Sewing Bee." The sewing was done for the inmates of the David and Margaret Home of Lordsburg, Cal. Every one who was approached on the subject was exceedingly kind and a generous supply of clothing to be made over, some all ready to wear, and many new pieces of goods were donated.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wuth returned home Monday from San Francisco, whither they were called by the sudden passing away of Robert Goetz, only surviving son of Mrs. Wuth. This also accorded with the previously known wishes of Robert.

A banquet was tendered by Chas H. Toll, chairman of the Casa Verdugo grammar school mass meetings, and the citizens' advisory committee, comprising Messrs. J. L. Keyes, Geo. T. Holman and David Black, at Casa Verdugo on Monday evening, to Trustees Heacock, Westlake and Sternberg, of Glendale City School District No. 1, and B. J. Schweitzer and A. H. Fahrheild, of Glendale, the architects to whom the contract for the plans was awarded. The social gathering was made the occasion for final review of the drawings and specifications of the grammar school to be built on Central avenue, between Dryden and Park. It is understood that everything was satisfactory, and final action was to be taken by the trustees at their regular meeting, Thursday night, towards advertising for bids and the beginning of actual construction.

The sale has been made by Mrs. Margaret E. Murphy of three lots, 150 by 250 altogether, located on Stocker street, 163 feet east of Brand boulevard, facing east, for a stated consideration, to C. C. McClean, in behalf of a client. In 1907 Mr. and Mrs. John E. Murphy visited Los Angeles during the Shriner conclave, and while here purchased the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and Stocker street, comprising about two acres, with the intention of erecting a modern hotel thereon. An unfortunate experience of Mr. Murphy in the wreck of the Shriner special on the Coast Line, near Surf, after the conclave, upset the plans, and Akron, O., their home town, received the benefit. The June, 1912, number of "American Tourist and Hotel News" has this item: "The opening of the New Portage hotel in Akron, Ohio, which occurred June 11, was a notable event in that city. The banquet was attended by more than 800 of Akron's representative citizens, and it was as notable a gathering as Akron has ever seen. It is an eight-story building of brick and steel, has 225 rooms, and represents an expenditure of half a million dollars. It has been leased for a long term of years by the Portage Hotel company, John E. Murphy, president and manager." However, since Mrs. Murphy retains 250 feet of frontage on Brand boulevard and Stocker street, there still remains a chance for the original project.

Casa Verdugo possesses a natural asset, the equal of which is claimed to be known in but three other localities in the world, namely, a spot in the Surrey Hills, England, another in the Welsh Hills, and one in the mountains of Alsace. This valuable fact consists of unique acoustic properties, arising from the formation of the foothills on Mountain avenue, between Brand boulevard and Louise street, and the atmospheric conditions surrounding this locality, which are at their best, as with wireless telegraphy, at night. An observer noticed that for years those natural vocalists, the Italians from the vineyards of the San Fernando valley, sought this spot for their festivals of song, which here found the best conditions of rendition. The conformation of the ground and the atmospheric properties act as a great sounding board, reflecting the volume and harmony of those overtones so essential in performances by large choruses and on great organs. If all the claims of this spot can be demonstrated beyond question, then the opportunity is here open for the establishment of a great open stage, facing an amphitheater with a capacity of many thousands for the audience; and all available for the meetings of the great Welsh Eisteddfod's, the German Saengerfests, and smaller gatherings. Upon a complete realization of the ideal here touched upon, the foothill heights of Glendale would indeed become the Mecca of the musical world. It is understood that a movement will soon be started to test the proposition by a large chorus.

ENJOYABLE AFTER-THEATER PARTY.

What proved to be one of the most enjoyable society events held in this city for some time was the after-theater dinner party given recently by Mrs. Adelaide Wise at her home, 808 Lomita avenue, to a number of professionals now acting at the Belasco, Burbank and Majestic theaters in Los Angeles. Immediately after the evening's performance the guests journeyed from the Angel City and informally proceeded to "make merry." Singing and dancing were indulged in in the spacious rooms of the beautiful home, and there were auto rides through Lomita Park and vicinity, which appeared especially charming in the pale light of the moon. It was at quite an early hour when refreshments were served by the charming hostess and assistants. Mrs. Wise, who, by the way, is an unprofessional actress, is sister to Thomas Wise o New York, author of "The Gentleman From Mississippi." Many of the guests present are "old pals," having appeared in the limelight on the boards of "Old Broadway" (New York) in past years.

Among those enjoying this delightful occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Richards Bennett, Miss Julia Dean, Miss Agnes DeLane, Frank Craven, Mr. McFadden, Miss Eloise Dean, Mr. and Mrs. James Neill, Harry Duffield, Miss Muriel Starr, Richards Barbee, Robert Ober, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLarnie, Mrs. Tom Oberlee, Jack Oberlee, Mrs. Henry Stockbridge, Mrs. Yantiss, L. P. Lenone, Tom Cox, Herbert Henning, Miss Adlier Rogers, Mrs. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Montrose, Capt. Jones, Karl Fornes, Col. R. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Giblin, Mrs. E. Furnstone, Miss Marguerite Leslie, Mr. Anderson, Miss Kate Parsons, Mr. and rs. Charles Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. George Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard, M. O. Parrell, C. McGuire, Clifford De Clastro, and Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan.
